Democratic State Ticket.

FOR GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM ALLEN, of Ross.
LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR,
SAMUEL F. CARY, of Hamilton
FOR SUPREME JUDGE,
THOS. Q. ASHBURN, of Clermont.
FOR AUDITOR OF STATE,
E. M. GREENE, of Shelby.
FOR TREASURER OF STATE,
JOHN SCHREINER, of Meigs.
FOR ATTORNEY-GENERAL,
THOS. B. POWELL, of Delaware.
MEMBER BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS,
H. E. O'HAGAN, of Erie.

The man who votes a Republican ticket this fall certifies that Grant's administration has been a "distinguished success."

The Democratic Legislature of Ohio reduced the fees of County officers $240,000 a year. When did a Republican Legislature or Congress ever reduce salaries?

Somers township couldn't come in at the Ringmasters Convention. Neither could Dixon, Jackson or Jefferson, which have been snubbed for years! Great is the power of the Eaton Ringmasters!

"Hoop 'em up," Colonel, we think that all our "honest and consistent" Democrats will be under your kind and protecting wing, ere the idea of October! How sad!

In the next General Assembly of Ohio the Senate will be composed of thirty-seven members, and the House of one hundred and eleven, an increase of one Senator and six Representatives over the 31st General Assembly.

"Rag money!" Ah! the Democratic editor, who would have had the temerity to write these two words about the greenbacks during the war, would soon have viewed his printing office scattered in the street, while hanging to a lamp-post gasping for breath.

If Gov. Hayes did not give $500, or any other sum of money, to the crusaders, let him say so, and he will be believed, but the statements of Republican editors, in the absence of his denial will not acquit him of the charge made by a paper published at his home.

J. H. Foss, Esq., is referred to extensively in the last Eaton Register. We have a slight recollection that one year ago, the Cincinnati Gazette and the Hamilton Telegraph, two unscrupulous Radical sheets, referred to the same individual to substantiate some of their malignant and lying charges against one of our Democratic State candidates! Singular coincidences, are they?

Four farmers came into our office the other day and subscribed for the Democrat. Two of these were Republicans, and they remarked that, as "they had been ignored by the late Ringmasters Convention, they expected to ignore that party, because when they put their hands down into their pockets, they found that more money was needed!" Hundreds of others in this county will come to the same conclusion.

The crisis of 1873 was the direct result of the corrupt and suicidal policy of the republican party; and yet through their greed for gain and power they do not stop and take a lesson from the ruin they produced, but they go on regardless of the protests of unemployed labor, stagnant business and suffering. The republican party are pledged to carry out this policy in the future, and it stands the people in hand to rebuke the leaders of this policy, regardless of party considerations.

The Republican leaders would like to run this campaign by a dark lantern, midnight cabals, as in 1864. Anything of a political character which will not bear the light of open day is dangerous to the welfare of the people, and should be discounted by every honest man. Those who plot policies in secret conclave under the obligation of oaths, and within locked doors, are dangerous men, however honest they may profess to be in their purposes. No true and sensible Democrat will allow his party fealty to be weakened by the popycock contrivances of secret societies.

In 1865 the wages the day laborer received for three days work would buy him a barrel of flour; now, in 1875, he must work nearly seven days for a barrel of flour. In 1865 one day's work paid for eight pounds of coffee, now it only pays for three pounds; then it would pay for seven pounds of sugar, now only ten pounds; then it would pay for twelve pounds of butter, now only five pounds; then it would pay for two and a half bushels of potatoes, now for one bushel and a half; then it would pay for fifteen dozens of eggs, now for eight dozens.

For the Eaton Democrat.
Eaton Aug. 2, 1875
Edith Democrat.

For more than a year past, I have noticed in your paper the numerous "hoops" directed against me, in which you endeavor in various ways, to bring me into disrespect, and to disparage my standing as a citizen in this community; but more particularly so, by attacking my opinions on the subject of temperance.

So long as you confined your attacks simply to my opinions, I took no notice of them whatever being entirely willing that the people of Preble County who knew you, and who know me, might judge for themselves on that subject. Although I must confess, I was not aware, that the opinions of a private citizen were the subject of censure and ridicule in a public journal.

Latterly however you have presumed to go farther than strictures on opinions merely, and have assumed to charge me with the commission of certain acts, which in your opinion are very fatal to my reputation as a citizen. Now this is a very different thing, and as I conceive demands notice at my hands.

In the last number of your paper you charge in respect to myself that, "One year ago, he put himself at the head of a mob, which interfered with the rights of our citizens to carry on their business under our laws and to eat and drink what they desired."

Now Sir I deny the above charge as a whole, I deny that I had anything to do, either in getting up or sustaining what was commonly known as the "crusade" (and that is what I understand you to mean in your charge). I deny that I ever met with the crusaders at any of their meetings, or ever made or heard any one make a temperance speech, either before, during the time of, or after the crusade. And I aver that my whole connection with the affair was that of a public officer only, I being at that time mayor of the town of Eaton, and I further aver, that the official course pursued by me in reference to the crusade, was advised, and approved, by one of the ablest attorneys at the Ohio Bar, (and he was not a crusader by any means.) And upon the above charge and denial, I demand your proof.

You next charge that, "He also furnished the Cincinnati Gazette, one of the most unscrupulous Radical papers in the State, with most abusive personal articles, against one of our candidates, for a high office on the State ticket, last year."

Now this is a most singular charge, you do not either affirm or deny the truth of the facts contained in the communication, you do not set out the words of the communication so that your readers could determine, whether or no the communication was abusive. For I presume that upon the truth or falsehood of the facts, asserted, would depend the abusive character of the article in question.

You simply charge that I wrote a communication to the Cincinnati Gazette, last fall, and then, without giving or attempting to give a word of the communication itself, charge that it was abusive, "of one of our candidates for a high office on our State ticket last year."

Now just how, a charge like this, can amount to anything is not quite clear. But I presume you refer, although you do not seem to possess sufficient nerve to say so, to the communications published last fall in the Cincinnati Gazette in reference to Judge Gilmore, purporting to come from this county, and signed, "Preble County Democrat."

Now Sir, I deny that I was the author of those communications, or of any one of them. I deny that I had anything to do, with the furnishing of said communications to the Cincinnati Gazette or to any one else, in any way or manner whatever, either directly or indirectly. And I now demand your proof, when you have introduced your testimony. I am ready to introduce mine. The trial shall not be delayed.

Respectfully,
J. H. Foss.

The above is the verbatim card of our ex-Bro. J. H. Foss, Esq., and which to us sounds very much like the lament of the "whang-doodle" that mourned for its first born!" It is not our purpose now to afflict the readers of the Democrat with a rehearsal of what has contributed to make Bro. Foss so "worn" here of late—the reasons are too well known—besides, we have larger game to shoot at, and more important matters demanding our time and space. No doubt it was the unhappy condition of Bro. Foss' bowels, that led him to imagine that the Democrat was "squibbing" at his opinions as a private citizen. The Lord Mayor of the city of Eaton and architect of our "showy Hall," is certainly more than a "private citizen," and his official declarations public property, besides, we were not aware before that he had any "private opinions" on temperance and the Crusade, for when not issuing official orders to the Marshal of Eaton to compel business men to remove salt barrels and boxes, in order that the crusade mob could have room on the side-walks to interfere and annoy these citizens, he was sitting around prominent business houses, making public his private opinions, (and an ass of himself too,) vindictively berating and denouncing all who opposed the Crusade—predicting who would fill drunkards graves—and declaring that the Democrat ought to be suppressed, "because it was an advocate of whiskey and saloons!" He contributed his mite toward this latter reform, transferring his patronage from the Democrat to the Register, simply because we warmly recommended our old and respected citizen, Judge HAINES, for the vacancy of Common Pleas Judge! That and nothing more.

We expected the Lord Mayor and architect of our "showy Hall," to go back on his crusade record—in fact we predicted it—more will do it. Many of the candidates on the Ringmasters ticket will now do it, and make affidavit that they knew nothing of it! But it is "too thin" yet, Bro. Foss. It is too fresh how you labored, consulted and decided with the sisters in what they no doubt honestly believed the work of Christ—and how they prayed in the M. E. Church on election day, that you might be endowed with wisdom and "back bone" to "stick" with them in the good cause! We now advise you to still "stick!" The unprecedented success of the Democrat, is sufficient evidence that our position of allowing every man to be the judge of what he shall eat and drink, was correct, and as one year of the time allotted us to fill a drunkard's grave has elapsed, and we have not yet been led home intoxicated, there is some hope!

As to the second complaint of ex-Bro. Foss, in regard to the items furnished the unscrupulous radical Cincinnati Gazette, we have no more disposition to do him an injustice or place him in a false position in this, than in the Crusade. Both these matters are dead and in the past—the people have rendered their verdict upon them, and they are not very material now—but we do know that a Reporter for the Cincinnati Gazette, called on the Lord Mayor of Eaton, when he came here to look up the record of the Democratic candidate on the State Ticket, but did not come to see us—and we further know, that some of the items which appeared in the Gazette against our democratic candidate, were in the possession of no other persons but the Lord Mayor and ourself. With this statement of the fact, we leave the question of how they got into that journal, for the reader to decide. As to the authorship of the articles in the Democrat, which Bro. Foss is so exercised about, we assume them in whole and detail, and here end it, with the following quotation from Burns, for the benefit of our ex-Bro:

"Oh! wad some pow'r the giftie gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us,
It wad frae monie a blunder free us,

LABORING MEN.

You remember a year ago when money was more abundant you had good times in comparison to what they are now. Did you then think you had too much money? Well, in order that the Government might take care of the RICH and the rich take care of the POOR, the Republican leaders called in, or took out of the circulation, millions of dollars of paper currency, and that is the reason money is so scarce, times so hard, prices so low and you are so hard pressed to get bread for yourselves and your families.

WILL YOU VOTE

for a continuance of these party leaders in office? Vote for a clean sweep this fall. Vote for more money. Vote for YOUR OWN INTERESTS poor men, and let partyism go to the dogs. Vote for the men who will make laws to protect all alike, and not for the RICH only, as the Republican leaders have been doing and will continue to do, if you continue them in office.

The iron manufacturers want more money, the farmers want more money—business men want more money—laboring men want more money—everybody wants more money, except the rich bondholders who pay no taxes on their wealth. VOTE FOR MORE MONEY.

The Democrat made the Constitution of Ohio. Their votes adopted it. They made the School laws. They are both good. Now, under the false plea of friendship the Republicans propose to change them back to the old Puritanical, blue blaze, psalm singing humbugs of 50 years ago—to the days when deacons and preachers opposed all education without a heavy sprinkling of their religion. That is the game of the Radical preachers and politicians. Stand by the solid column of Democracy. Stand by the party that has given Ohio the first name in the Union for her excellent Schools. Watch the enemy closely. The cry about the Catholics is a humbug, and is only intended to work upon the prejudice of a weak mind. The Catholics are not interfering with our schools. There is a large Catholic population in Preble county, and who, with the truth in his mouth, dare say they interfere in any way whatever?

The editor of the Register is very dull or is particularly anxious for some sympathy. Because we said he would find it more difficult to "whoop up" farmers and laboring men to support a party that was pronounced by that paper as "unprecedentedly corrupt," than to "hoop up" whiskey barrels, he undertakes to get the impression out that we were making fun of him, because he was once a laboring man! Poor fellow! We've been a laborer all our life, and expect to die in the harness. Try something else, Colonel.

Have the Saylor family a lease on the office of Representative? From precedent it seems it has, and that it is better to be born with a lucky name than with qualifications.

AN ITEM WORTH MENTIONING.

It is claimed that R. B. Hayes is a very respectable man and made a respectable Governor. All of this we are willing to concede; but Mr. Hayes belongs to a party of wrong principles, a party that gives the people a too expensive government.

As an evidence of the Republican idea of administering public affairs, and the Democratic practices, we call to mind a fact worth remembering at this time; as shown by the Auditor of State's Annual Report it will be seen that Governor Hayes, during the four years he served as Governor, drew from the State Treasury for contingent expenses, as follows:

In 1868	$5,027 27
In 1869	2,794 22
In 1870	3,881 03
In 1871	3,160 91

Making a total of $14,863 43 Or an average per year of $3,715 75.

Now let us see what Governor Allen's contingent expenses were for the two years he has been Governor, which are as follows:

For 1874	$1,369 79
For 1875	1,300 00

Making a total of $2,669 79 Or an average per year of $1,334 90. In this one particular the saving to the tax payers of the State per year in the contingent expense under Governor Allen, is $2,430 90, as compared with the contingent expenses of Governor Hayes.

Now this is one item worth naming. It will not do to say that Mr. Hayes was necessitated to greater expenses. We have already published from the Wayne County Democrat a comparative statement of the contingent expenditures between Governor Allen and Governor Hayes. The fact is that Republicans have a faculty of spending more money in administering the government than Democrats; and if Hayes is elected for Governor, an increase of taxes will be made to meet the increase of expenditures these Republicans will make.

United States Senator Sergeant, who keeps the country from tipping up by staying on the Pacific coast and waving the "bloody shirt" for the Administration, has been making a remarkable speech, which the Administration organs quote approvingly. Here is an extract:

"Have you ever thought, fellow citizens, that the reduction of the National debt has been a minute since you have sat here and I have commenced talking? Taking the average of the whole time, the reduction of the debt has gone on at that rate. Why, take your watch and look at it. See the second hand as it flies; at each tick of the second hand two dollars has been paid down during the whole time since Grant's inauguration, by day and by night, two dollars per day in gold has gone off the National debt."

Have you ever thought, fellow citizens, that you are being taxed at the rate of $2,993 a minute? Taking the average of the whole time and comparing it with the National and local taxation the levying of taxes is going on at that rate. See the second hand as it flies; at each tick of that second hand since the beginning of the year 1875, by day and by night, Sundays and week days, $34 50 per second has gone out of the people's pockets. And while that $34 50 was being taken out of the people's pockets only $2 per second was being taken out of the public debt.

"Honest and consistent" Democrats, who have "borne the burdens and expenses of former campaigns," are still requested to call on the editor of the Eaton Register. He is ready, he is willing. Let us all pray!

The editor of the Register should hunt up the ropes that were about to be used a few years ago to strangle his "honest and consistent" democrats, and present them to these bean ideals, to prove the cords of love his manly bosom now swells for them. How lovely it is!

How kind and considerate is the editor of the Eaton Register for the "honest and consistent" democrats in Preble county, who have "borne the burdens and expenses" of former campaigns? But we suppose Democracy can't help it, he's naturally so generous toward "consistent democrats,"—it's a family failing of the "capable and judicious statesman's" office holders—and we feel like encouraging it.

Those who wish to tighten the grip of the Bank Monopoly, Railroad Monopoly, Eastern Factory Monopoly, Grant Monopoly, and every curse of the country resulting from the bad administration of the government in all its branches by the Republican party, must support that party this fall. The Democratic party is pledged to reform these abuses, and to give the producing classes a chance.

Gov. ALLEN stands upon the side of the People as against the Bondholding, National Banking aristocracy. He is opposed to the contraction of the currency, but favors the volume of currency being made and kept equal to the wants of trade, and believes that legal-tenders cannot be brought to a par with gold by destroying the industries of the people, but rather by promoting them. In short, he stands squarely upon the platform adopted by the Democratic Convention of June 17th, and by his forcible arraignment of the administration and its toadies and rings, he carries consternation and dismay into the ranks of the enemy.

THE ELECTION.

There can be no possible doubt of the result of the State election. Even at this early stage of the canvass, the indications are pronounced and decided. Governor WILLIAM ALLEN and the whole Democratic State ticket will be elected by an overwhelming majority. The financial issue, like Aaron's rod, swallows up everything else. When the people are out of employment, and are begging and starving, they are in no disposition or humor to listen to any thing that does not promise to alleviate their condition. The attempt of the Republican managers to smuggle themselves into power by the assertion that it was necessary for everybody who did not believe in the Party to vote their ticket, in order to preserve the liberties of the country, has been a humiliating failure. It has been received with popular contempt. The Republican party of Ohio was doomed to overwhelming defeat when it adopted the Wall street, National Bank, gold speculation and usurers' platform. That platform does not suit the farmers, the manufacturers or the men of commerce, and wherever a fight is made against it, it is certain to win.

As the issue now stands Wall street is the Republican party. The farm, the factory, the machine shop, and the store are the Democratic. The untaxed bondholder, the National Banker who declares dividends at from twenty-five to forty per cent, and the usurer who is living by his robbery of labor, may be strong in the newspapers which they have bought up, but they are weak with the people.

The money that was good in an issue of trouble is just the money we want now, because we are exactly in that peculiar condition. We don't distrust the masses of the Republican party. As they understand the question—and they will be made to understand it—they will be all right. A Republican farmer, manufacturer or laborer is not going to be a tail to the Wall street kite. That kite will not float above Ohio with his assent. What a splendid tribute to American institutions is the campaign now progressing in Ohio! There is great suffering and destitution, great want of employment. The people will take no other revenge upon the authors of their wrongs than simply to vote against them and for a policy that will bring, in its results, good times. Their forbearance can be too highly commended.—Kenton Democrat.

Newark Advocate: The financial resolutions of the Ohio Democratic Convention have given fresh hope to the toiling and indebted classes all over the Union. Many had begun to fear that the Money Power had silenced all opposition to its gradual absorption and control of the wealth of the country. Now there is hope for the masses—and the tools of the Money Kings spit out the rage of their masters at the possibility that their blood-sucking career may be checked by a general uprising similar to that which flooded the Ohio Convention with the resistless force of a tidal wave.
